

Pressing Matters - Wine Club

Autumn 2019 Selection

Join our Wine Club and receive substantial discounts and special offers!

Whether you enjoy both Riesling and Pinot Noir, or simply Pinot Noir, we now offer two Wine Club Selections to tempt you; the classic Mixed Selection or the Pinot Noir Selection, as well as the option of your own Standing Order membership.

As a Mixed or Pinot Noir Wine Club member you will receive two cases of carefully selected wines each year. Each is chosen by Greg Melick and includes current release wines and vintages not available to the public -offering an opportunity to contrast new releases against older and maturing vintages. Our approach of holding back vintages for Wine Club members can take the guess work out of when to drink our wines at their best.

Our Mixed Selection—You will be sent two cases of selected wine each year: one in Autumn (March) and another in Spring (September). Each selection, set at $395 per case, is at a substantial discount to the regular retail price and is sent to you freight-free within Australia. Prior notice will be given of any price increases.

The 2019 Autumn Mixed Selection includes the wines below. Please See Page 3 for Tasting Notes and all awards.

TASTING NOTES

AUTUMN 2019 MIXED WINE CLUB SELECTION

The 2015 Riesling R0 – Museum Release – Bronze Medal – RHWS 2018

It has flavour, texture and searing acidity. It's hard to imagine that this will do anything other than mature very well. Exquisite balance. Lime, slate and mineral. Everything in fine order.
(AWC – Aug 16 – 95 points – Gold Rating)

The 2013 Riesling R9 – Museum Release – Silver Medal '13 RHWS - Bronze Medal – 14 TWS

Bright straw-green; a whirling dervish of lime and grapefruit juice, mineral and acidity that leaves no corner of the mouth untouched; the juxtaposition of fruit and 9g/l of residual sugar has a promise of honey around the corner.
(AWC Jul 14 – 95 points – Gold Rating)

The 2015 Riesling R9 – Museum Release – Gold Medal – Six Nations Wine Challenge 2017

It feels complete. There's sweetness here but the swing of acidity and gentle textural elements have the wine slinging both deliciously and long through the palate. Irresistible is the word. (AWC Aug 16 – 95 points – Gold Rating)

The 2017 Riesling R69 – Current Release

The pristine, fresh acidity is a given, and rather than merely sweetness from the 69g/l residual sugar, it has morphed this wine altogether, adding layers of flavour. Preserved ginger and oranges, lemon balm infused tea and cardamom rally together on the long finish. Beautiful balance.
(AWC – Aug 18 – 95 points – Gold Rating)

The 2015 Riesling R139 – Museum Release

Exquisite flavour. More than enough complexity tucked up its sleeve but the run of sweet citrusy flavour and the carry of it through the finish is top notch. (AWC Aug 16 – 95 points – Gold Rating)

The 2013 Pinot Noir – Museum Release

A chunky pinot, hewn across multi-clonal sources, this is big on flavour yet less so on finesse. Dark cherry, bitter chocolate and some sarsaparilla flesh are flung over a skeleton of vanillin oak and sturdy tannins. (AWC – Aug 17, 91 points – Silver Rating)

The 2016 Pinot Noir – Pre-Release – Trophy – Best 3 Year Old Pinot (TWS 2019) Top Gold (TWS 2019), Gold Medal – Australian Pinot Challenge (APC 2018)

What can we say – shown last year for the first time at the inaugural Australian Pinot Challenge (APC) and garnering a gold medal, this wine then went on to win a Trophy and Top Gold medal at the Tasmanian Wine Show (2019) for Best 3 Year Old Pinot Noir.

The 2010 Pinot Noir Block B – Members' Only Release – Silver Medal – 2011 Royal Hobart Wine Show Bronze Medal – 2013 Royal Hobart Wine Show

Not reviewed as this is a Wine Club Only Release and of limited quantity. Block B and Block C wines are those barrels that have been John-Wested (if you're over 50 you may know the reference to the fish that is returned to the lake!) In this case the wines are generally one type of clone/rootstock and are judged at assemblage as to not add significantly to the final blend of our main Pinot Noir. Obviously this is not to say the wine is no good – as is evidenced by the winning of medals!

AUTUMN 2019 PINOT NOIR ONLY CLUB SELECTION

The 2015 Pinot Noir – Current Release

Silver Medal – 2018 Royal Hobart Wine Show

Bronze Medal – 2019 Tasmanian Wine Show

It packs a lot of flavour with sweet plums and cherries, earthy rhubarb and roasted beetroot with that alluring forest floor fragrance. Full-bodied and intense sweet fruit on the palate no obvious oak (aged 10 months French barrels 10% new and best barrels selected before blending) and while there's a freshness and a suppleness, the tannins present a sturdy wall, built to last for quite some time. (AWC Aug 18 – 93 points – Silver Rating)

The 2013 Pinot Noir – Museum Release

A chunky pinot, hewn across multi-clonal sources, this is big on flavour yet less so on finesse. Dark cherry, bitter chocolate and some sarsaparilla flesh are flung over a skeleton of vanillin oak and sturdy tannins. (AWC – Aug 17, 91 points – Silver Rating)
